

Europe (4 countries) (8N/9D)

Trip Overview

Europe is a continent known as the mother of Western civilization. But, this beautiful place has a long history of human civilization along with unique cultural diversity, an endless variety of art, music, festivals, political history, and so on. Traveling to Europe reveals a part of you that you never knew existed and brings out another level of joy and enthusiasm.

Orchid Travels brings you an 8-night and 9-day Europe tour package where you can travel to 4 countries and 6 different cities; Amsterdam, Cologne, Heidelberg, Interlaken, Geneva, and Paris. Touring these historical cities will involve lots of religious and cultural experience, experiencing thousands of years of political development, and understanding the fascinating past of this place.

Europe has hundreds of heritage sites, many of which are thousands of years old, reflecting its glorious past. Travelers will also observe the beauty of various historic landmarks, from ancient ruins to some of the most famous museums in the world. You can also devour some of the best chocolates in the world. That is why we believe roaming through the streets and alleys of Europe is like making a journey back in time.

While every city in Europe is worth visiting and tourists can have different experiences in all these places, we have made it easier for you by picking some interesting cities in different European nations that can be completed within a few days. Each of these cities will give you something good to remember.

Faqs

What is the most budget-friendly time to go to Europe for tourists?

You normally can visit Europe in spring and summer since these months have fewer numbers of tourists and that lowers the prices of flights and accommodations. However, that may vary according to cities since there could be festivals or celebrations during these times which could hike up the prices. So, do thorough research about the place you want to visit in Europe before you go.

Is Paris more expensive than Amsterdam for tourists?

Generally, Paris is slightly more expensive than Amsterdam for an average tourist regarding accommodation, food and drinks, travel options, and transportation costs. That being said, it all depends on a person's preferences and travel style.
